

FIVE CONCERTS, FOUR NIGHTS, OVER 120,000 FANS EXPECTED AT PHILADELPHIA SPORTS COMPLEX AUGUST 1 - AUGUST 5

Philadelphia, PA – Five concerts in five nights, featuring many of the hottest musical acts in the world, and attracting more than 120,000 concert goers, come to the Philadelphia Sports Complex beginning on Friday, August 1, when Jason Aldean and Florida Georgia Line perform at Citizens Bank Park. The following night, it's a concert double-header with Billy Joel performing at Citizens Bank Park and Miley Cyrus headlining the Wells Fargo Center. Two nights later, Katy Perry fills the Wells Fargo Center on Monday, August 4 and Tuesday, August 5.

Over 90 trucks and 40 tour buses will be used to transport all of the show's needs for equipment and crew. Combined, all four performers have 37 total Grammy nominations, have released over 25 studio albums, recorded 128 singles and span multiple music genres.

Aldean has 11 singles that have reached the top of the country music charts including "Dirty Road Anthem" and "Night Train." Accompanying Aldean are country duo Florida Georgia Line who saw their rise to fame with their hit single "Cruise."

Joel has sold more than 150 million records worldwide, making him one of the best-selling artists of all time. He last performed in Philadelphia at Citizens Bank Park, as part of a double-header with Elton John on August 1, 2009.

Cyrus last played at the venue during her 2009 Wonder World Tour. During its release week, Bangerz hit #1 on iTunes in over 70 countries. Both singles, "Wrecking Ball" and "We Can't Stop," off Bangerz have already sold 4.3 million copies in the U.S. alone. This show is the rescheduled date from when Cyrus postponed her spring tour to recuperate from an illness. Tickets to the originally scheduled date will be honored at the Wells Fargo Center.

Perry has sold 11 million albums, 81 million singles worldwide and is the best-selling digital singles artist in the U.S. according to RIAA. Opening for Perry is American indie pop duo, Capital Cities, famous for their chart-topping single "Safe and Sound." Perry last performed at the Wells Fargo Center on June 24, 2011.

XFINITY Live! Philadelphia is the official pre-concert and post-concert location for the five shows and also offers their own festivities including Countryfest featuring bands Shot of Southern and Philbilly performing on the outdoor concert stage on Friday, August 1 beginning at 2 p.m. Tricky Dick & The Coverups perform later in the evening at Victory Beer Hall. Bangarang and Lost In Paris keep the party going at XFINITY Live! on Saturday, August 2, with performances starting at 8 p.m.

Both the Wells Fargo Center and Citizens Bank Park, home of the Philadelphia Phillies (MLB), are managed by Global Spectrum, the fastest growing firm in the public assembly management field. Global Spectrum is a subsidiary of Comcast-Spectacor, which operates in 48 of the 50 United States. The company owns the Philadelphia Flyers (NHL), the home arena for both the Flyers and the NBA's Philadelphia 76ers, the Wells Fargo Center, and four Flyers Skate Zone community ice skating and hockey rinks. In addition, Comcast-Spectacor is also the principal owner of Global Spectrum, the fastest growing firm in the public assembly management field with more than 120 facilities throughout the United States and Canada; Ovation Food Services, a food and beverage service provider; Front Row Marketing Services, a commercial rights sales company; FanOne, a digital fan marketing company; and Paciolan, the leading provider of venue enablement, ticketing, fundraising and marketing technology solutions.
