Xfinity Live!

If you want to have the ultimate sports bar experience, go here. Located within walking distance of the stadiums, this place is like your favorite sports bar ate Adderall and joined a crossfit class. With a 32 foot television suspended over the main bar, accompanied by a fleet of additional flat screen televisions, you would literally have to keep your eyes closed to miss a play. Want a change of scenery? There are six different bars inside of this one of a kind sports bar arena. Enjoy craft brews at the Victory Bar and Grill, or head over to the PBR Bar and Grill to ride the mechanical bull.

Chickie's and Pete's

Recognized by ESPN as the “#1 sports bar on the east coast”, Chickie's and Pete's is famous for more than just their crab fries. Their South Philly location is a great place to catch the game on their 14-foot television as you enjoy a white lobster pizza or their signature Alaskan King crab. Located just blocks away from the stadiums, the energy here is always on high.

Tavern on Broad

Known for having a great happy hour but better known for being a great place to watch the game, Tavern on Broad is a lot more than what its name suggests. Don't worry about paying a fortune on beers at the stadium. Indulge in a few beverages here and then just hop on the orange line located just feet away from the front door and head over to the game!
