Coverage against the New York Rangers

Former Flyers Goalie Brian Boucher Joins Comcast SportsNet Flyers Playoff Team

PHILADELPHIA (April 15, 2014) – Comcast SportsNet, the leader in local sports news, will have extensive coverage of the Philadelphia Flyers first round playoff series against the New York Rangers. In addition to live game broadcasts, Comcast SportsNet will provide viewers with extensive pre and postgame coverage on-air and online at CSNPhilly.com.

Throughout the playoffs, Flyers fans can catch the latest team developments, game previews and opposing team analysis from Tim Panaccio on “Philly Sports Talk,” “SportsNet Central,” “Flyers Pregame Live,” “Flyers Postgame Live,” and online at CSNPhilly.com.

Former Flyer Brian Boucher will join Comcast SportsNet’s Flyers coverage throughout the playoffs. The former goalie will appear on “Philly Sports Talk,” “Flyers Pregame Live,” and “Cup Central.”

Comcast SportsNet’s Flyers broadcast team of Jim Jackson, Steve Coates and Bill Clement will call Games One, Three and Four, and Six and Seven (if necessary). All games, including games airing on NBC10, will be replayed on Comcast SportsNet and The Comcast Network the following day.
