country to their third world Cup against their previous world Cup opponents, Germany. The last time they played in the finals of the tournament, Germany won 1-0 in 1990, and Argentina took the victory in 1986. Regardless of where your soccer loyalties lie, you will not want to miss this spectacular finish. Here are a couple places you can watch the 2014 World Cup Final.

It's all about Deutschland as Brauhaus Schmitz closes down the 700 block of South Street during their World Cup Final Party. Starting at 12 p.m. soccer fans can enjoy numerous food trucks, a beer trailer featuring Warsteiner products and a 20 foot jumbo screen, so you won't miss any of the action. Not a fan of big crowds? Brauhaus Schmitz is offering V.I.P. tickets for $60 which includes a private viewing featuring a food buffet and five beer tickets during the afternoon.

Fado screams Ireland, but bleeds soccer all year round, so it only makes sense to join the numerous fans from around the world to catch the World Cup Final here. This Center City bar
