Viewing a sporting event here is certainly an experience! Where else can you find a 32 foot television to watch your favorite team play? This is Philly's premiere dining and entertainment destination. This complex offers multiple floors of dining opportunities and entertainment, so you'll never be bored when you make a trip out here. This is a great spot before, during, and after a sports game. They even host events such as Philadelphia Beer Week as well as concert series. You definitely have to give this establishment a shot if you've never been here before.
